Foreword

Fall has faded its brilliance into the white glistening of winter which melted away to the approach of spring. In nine short months the class of '64 has all too soon completed its senior year and is prepared to graduate. When its ninety-three individual members leave their Alma Mater they will scatter to meet their various destinies. Time has proven they will never assemble in their total ever again.

The senior year is the most important year of a graduate's high school life. As it is the most recent one will always recall many pleasant memories which as the poet says, "mellow with the years".

There are highlights of this year which were special in the curriculum of the school. The Petro Schola staff has tried to capture these fleeting moments and present them to you in concrete form. As you open your yearbook you will travel down a school lane of memories. The mind functions amazingly. It needs only a brief glimpse of the past to bring it back vividly. The 1964 Petro Schola will be a treasured reminder of happy school days when our troubles were few and our hearts young and gay.

Betty Cornell, Editor

IN DEDICATION -

For your unending patience throughout each year,

For your jolliness, gaiety, and cheer;

For the lessons in English from which we all have profited,

For all the good times that to help us you have forfeited;

For teaching us the crafts that make our home the best,

For contributing the most to make our junior play a success,

For the long hours spent helping with our junior prom;

For the high spirited attitude which we have learned so many lessons from;

To list all the ways that you have helped us

Would be too much to do,

So we'll simply say "Thanks Mrs. Arnold For just being you."

And in appreciation, we proudly dedicate to you

Our 1964 issue of the Petro Schola.

Our memories of Mrs. Arnold will not be that of her sitting primly behind her desk. We never saw her that way--she was too busy. They will be of her in her slacks coaching the junior play cast. We will see her with a paint brush in hand devoting talents to the prom decorations. But most of all we will remember the times when we asked her advice and she found a solution to our problems.

The Student Council is the central governing agent of the student body. It is made up of representatives from each homeroom.

The Student Council benefits the students, the faculty, and the administration by promoting better student-faculty-administration relations. It furnishes a working model of government for high school students by the representation of the student's opinions in school affairs.

FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA

Future Farmers is their name,
Lighting the way is their fame.
They help us in every way
To make our school life pleasant and gay.
No one ever puts them down
When they make their trip to Morgantown.
Yes, they've won seven in a row,
Makes other schools look mighty low.
Sweepstakes is their yearly goal,
Winning will be their future role.

Roy led the way a year ago,
Which will always let us know
That this chapter really rates,
As the best chapter in the state.

As I was walking down the street
The archery club I chanced to meet;
An arrow from each bow did fly
Some down, some up into the sky.
Much broader, taller than the rest,
Coach Long's advice was the best.

Now when your bow is held just right
Your feathered shaft is true in flight.
When safety rides along with skill
Your scalps and trophies all will thrill.
For many days we shot in glee
Our faces here you all may see.

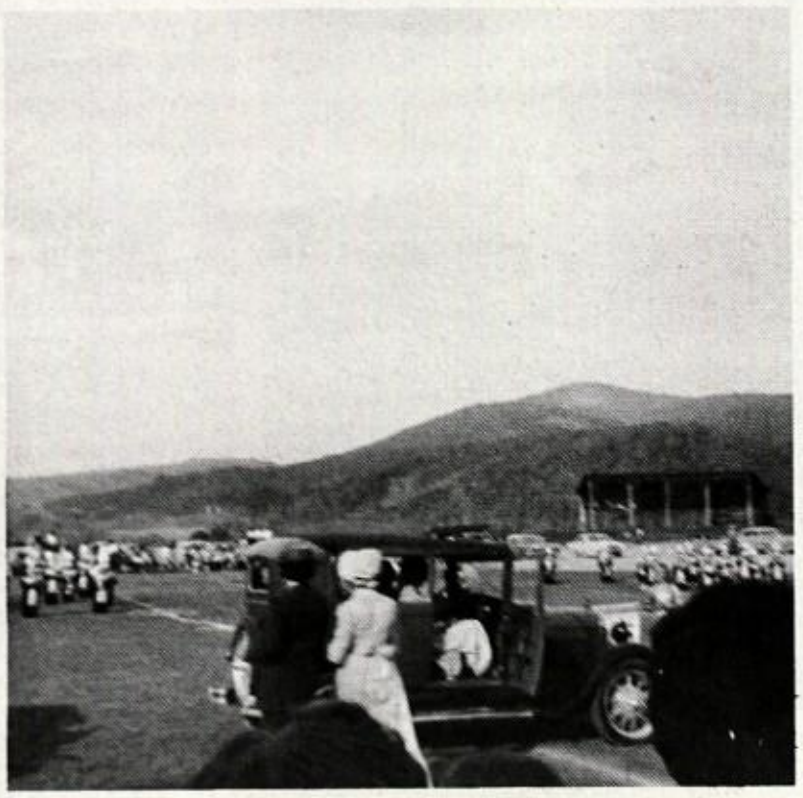
THE SOPHOMORE FLOAT

The Sophomore class proudly displayed their first place "Viking Train" which was composed of eleven individual decorated wagons accompanied by Sophomore girls in football jerseys.



The majorettes presented a striking contrast between the fashions of the 1860's and present day apparel as they appeared before a large crowd.

Vikings Have Something to Smile About

Coach Wayne Barr's Viking football team, with assistant line coach, Jim Long, had a successful season by earning a six win and four loss season.

The captains this year were Glenn Vance and Roy Reynolds with All-Conference Guard, Norman Sites calling the defensive plays.

Victories were over Greenback 31-6, rolling over Moorefield 30-0, Ridgely 13-0, and Circleville 51-6. The Vikings lost only one of their first seven games allowing only 24 points scored against their defense. The Vikings were dealt losses by Beall 6-0, Romney 31-6 and in the homecoming Keyser stopped the Vikings by a narrow three points, 9-6. Southern also placed the Vikings in the losing column in the last minutes of play defeating us 12-7 on a cold night.

Jariet Kessel, senior tackle, and Russell Burgess, Junior end, were voted to the first team in the Potomac Valley Conference with quarterback, Roy Reynolds voted to the second team. Senior fullback, Glenn Vance, made Honorable mention in the state. Holding the forward front were the hard senior linemen Norman Sites, Joe Hines, and Joe Evans. Also adding to a successful year were Eddie Thorne, halfback, Frank Bennett, defensive specialist, Bill Thompson, turning in a superb year as a junior center, Roger Ketterman, halfback, and Donald Mongold, a junior end on offense and defense.

Varsity Basketball

Coach Carroll Michael led his Viking Team to a seven win and six loss record in the first thirteen games.

The most exciting game of the year was the upset of the unbeaten Franklin's thirteen game winning streak in the last minute of play. Franklin had won two victories from the Vikings previous to this game. Foul shots by senior David Cuppett in the last minutes gave Petersburg the victory, 52--50. Jim Brodengeyer played a fine game by contributing seventeen points; Roy Harman scored twelve points, and senior Chuck "Swisher" Fisher ripped the net with ten points, most of which were in the last quarter. Other victories were over Circleville 70-55, Mathias 56-45, Bayard 53-51, Mathias 64-61, and Moorefield 56-51. Petersburg suffered defeats from Piedmont 80-41, Franklin 55-46, Romney 75-68, Keyser 94-61, and losing to Keyser again in the last seconds by a narrow 59-57.

Franklin took the Holiday tournament by defeating Petersburg 55-53 the first night and Circleville 64-55 the second night. Circleville beat Moorefield 59-55 the first night and the Vikings beat Moorefield 63-50 the second night.

Jim Brodengeyer has led the Vikings by scoring 200 points in the first thirteen games to place second in the Potomac Valley Conference. David Cuppett follows with 124, Chuck Fisher and Roy Harman are tied at 121 after thirteen games.

Viking Baseball Team

The Viking baseball team had a successful season by chalking up a six win four loss record. Under Coach Wayne Barr's direction the young team competed very well with the teams in the Conference. The team traveled on the arm of Roy Harman and Chuck Fisher. Glenn Vance, the catcher, Joe Hines, left fielder, and Roy "Rogers" Reynolds, short stop, had batting averages over the three hundred mark.

In the "64" season the Vikings will have the same basic team. Coach Barr and his experienced team of Seniors and Juniors should have one of the best records of the Vikings in Petersburg High School.

Coach Jim Long has developed a fine wrestling team in two years, but is lacking boys and experience. However, the squad has shown great improvement over last year. One of the most memorable events of this year's very successful season was the defeat of Petersburg's Arch-Rival Moorefield.

At the time of this writing Roger Ketterman remains undefeated.

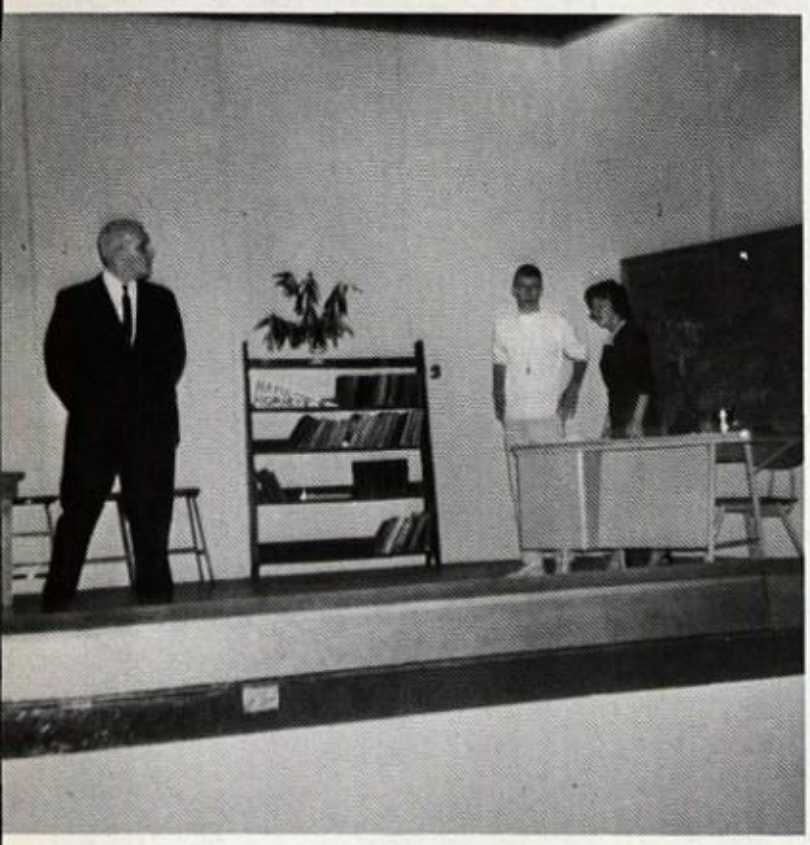
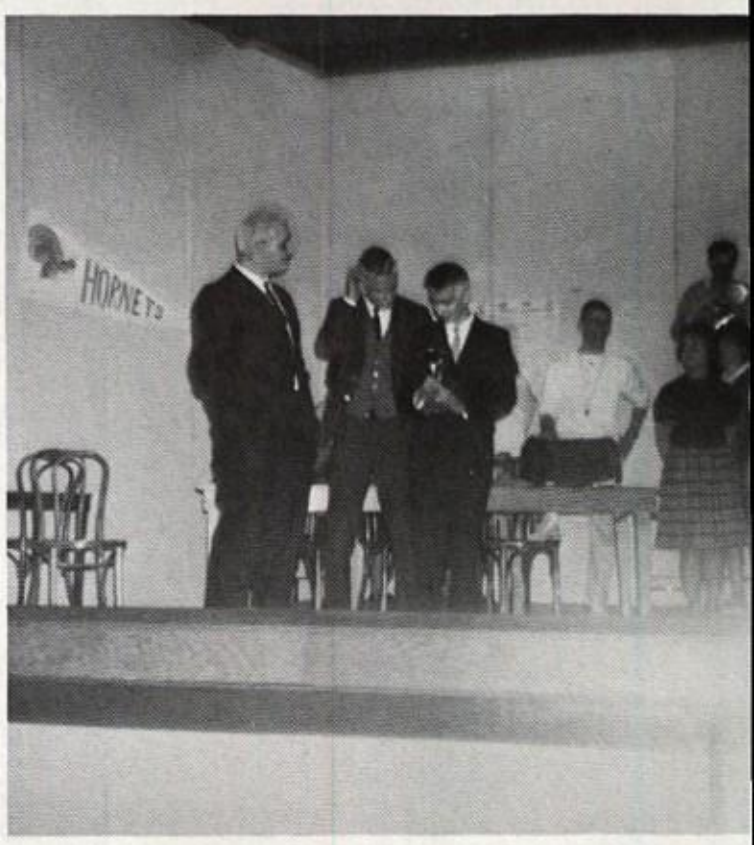
"Annual Affair" Presented by the Junior Class





On November 15, the Junior Class presented their production of the "Annual Affair". This three act comedy concerned a group of high school students and teachers hilariously involved in the problems of putting out their yearbook.

The well-selected cast consisted of Abe Evans, Mr. Deward Fulwider, Superintendent of the high school; Karen Sites, Miss Betty Dugan, the commercial teacher and adviser for the yearbook; Ellen Groves, Miss Nelson, the school secretary; Malcolm Alt, Coach Kelly, who is engaged to Betty; George Reid, Mr. Harvey Johnson, the representative from a printing firm; Larry Mauzy, Clicker O'Toole, staff photographer; Margaret Martin, Nancy Wilson, editorial staff member; Barbara Bergdoll, Dolly Templeton, business manager; Roy Harman, Breezy Enright, promotional manager; Patricia Vance, Gloria Esterbrook, Fulwider's niece; Brad Kite and Charles Parsons, school board members; Doris Wratchford, Ruth Hennessy, home economics teacher; and Rebecca Alt, Miss Pamela Higgen-bottom, a contest chairman. Extras included Joe Garber, Nancy Goldizen, Linda Bobo, William Halterman, and Norma Mauzy. Student directors were Patricia Rohrbaugh and William Halterman. Mrs. Arnold served capably as director and those helping here were Mr. Hawse, Miss W. Bergdoll, Mr. Bosley, and Mrs. Kimble.

The cast, sponsors, and various committees worked really hard and the "Annaul Affair" proved to be one of the best plays ever given.

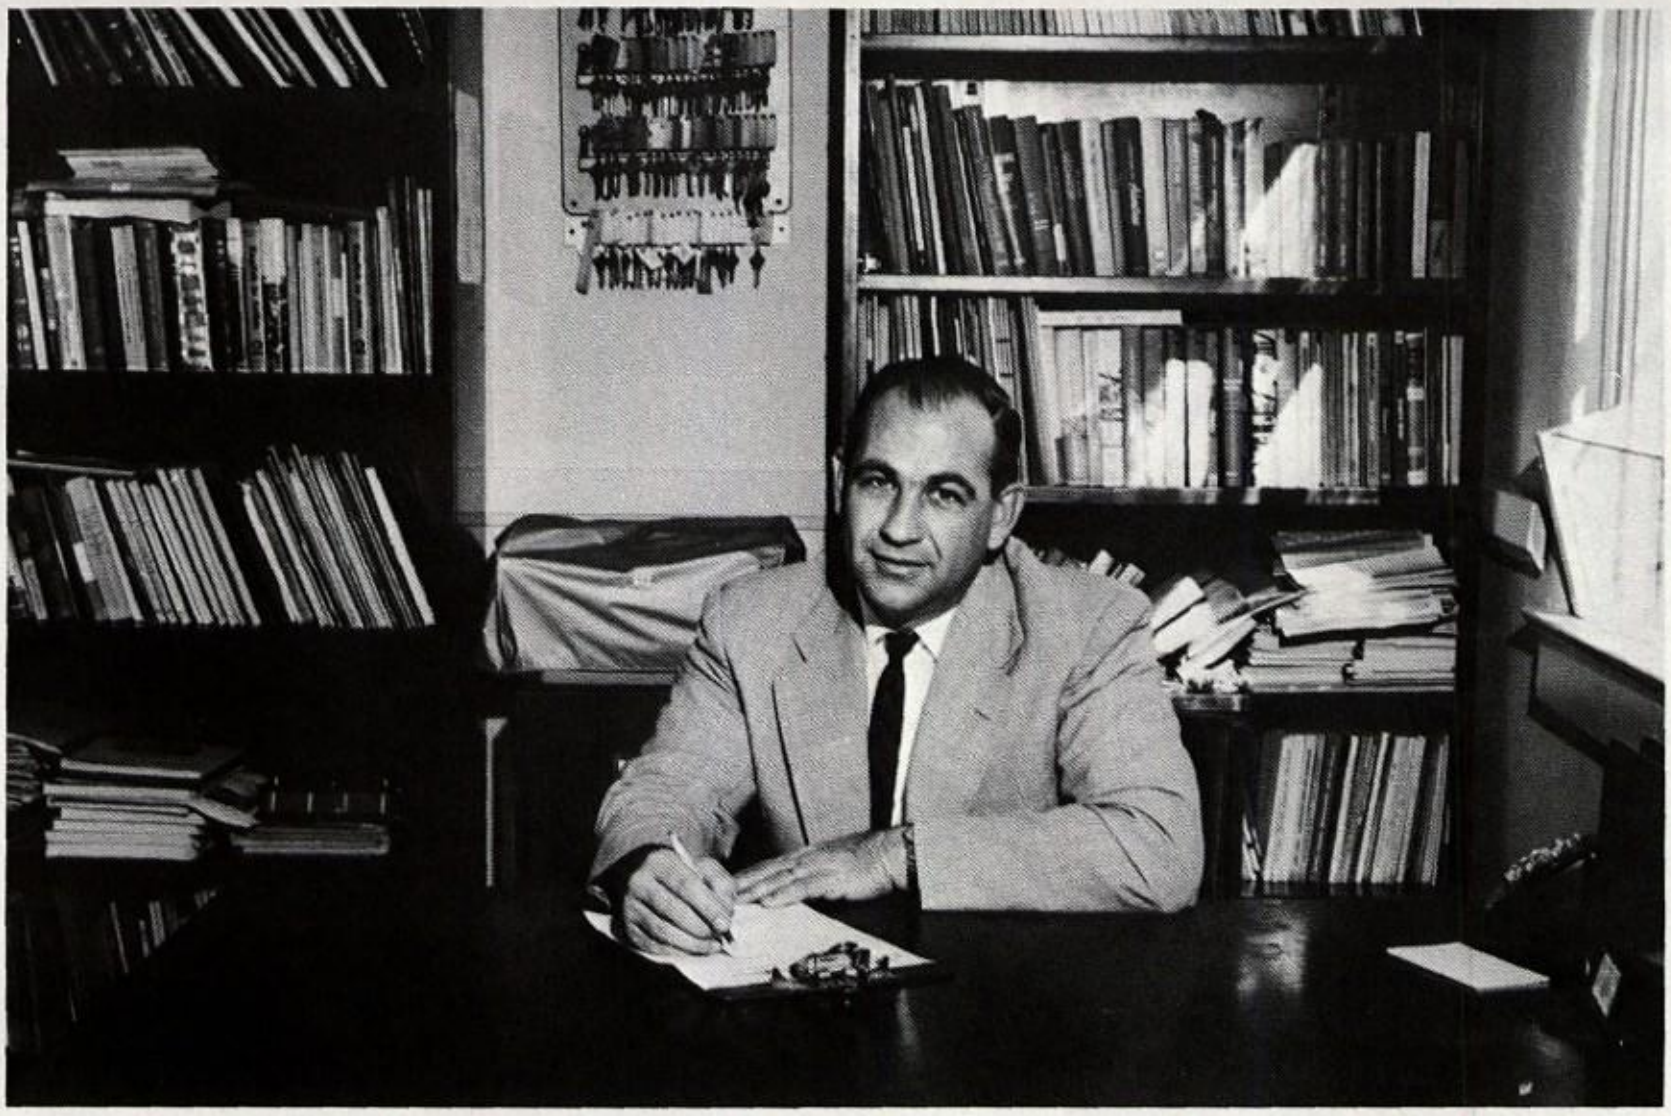
Principal's Message



A BIG STEP

For most people graduation from high school is one of many steps along life's journey. If, you are fortunate enough to be in the graduating class of 1964, you will have a distinct advantage over classmates who are not taking this big step.

Statistics show that people who have a high school education far surpass those who do not, in economic, social and spiritual adjustment, and in successful living. Statistics also prove that those in the senior class who will continue their education will lead even a more rewarding life.

The faculty and I wish to extend good wishes to the class of 1964 in attaining this additional big step in your life.

IN MEMORIAM

Nancy Marie Duling

Sadness lingers in our hearts as we recall and cherish the memory of one of our classmates who started her high school career in the seventh grade and who would have graduated in the class of sixty-four.

Nancy Marie Duling of Arthur, West Virginia, the daughter of Galen Duling and Florenia Evans Duling, completed her seventh grade at Petersburg High School, after which she and her parents moved to Athens, West Virginia. While there she was the winner of the Golden Horseshoe, an honor that she cherished. She departed this life in a Bluefield Hospital on October 16, 1960, as a result of rheumatic fever.

Although it is our loss we feel that it is heaven's gain. There will always be a vacant place in our hearts and a cherished memory of our beloved classmate.

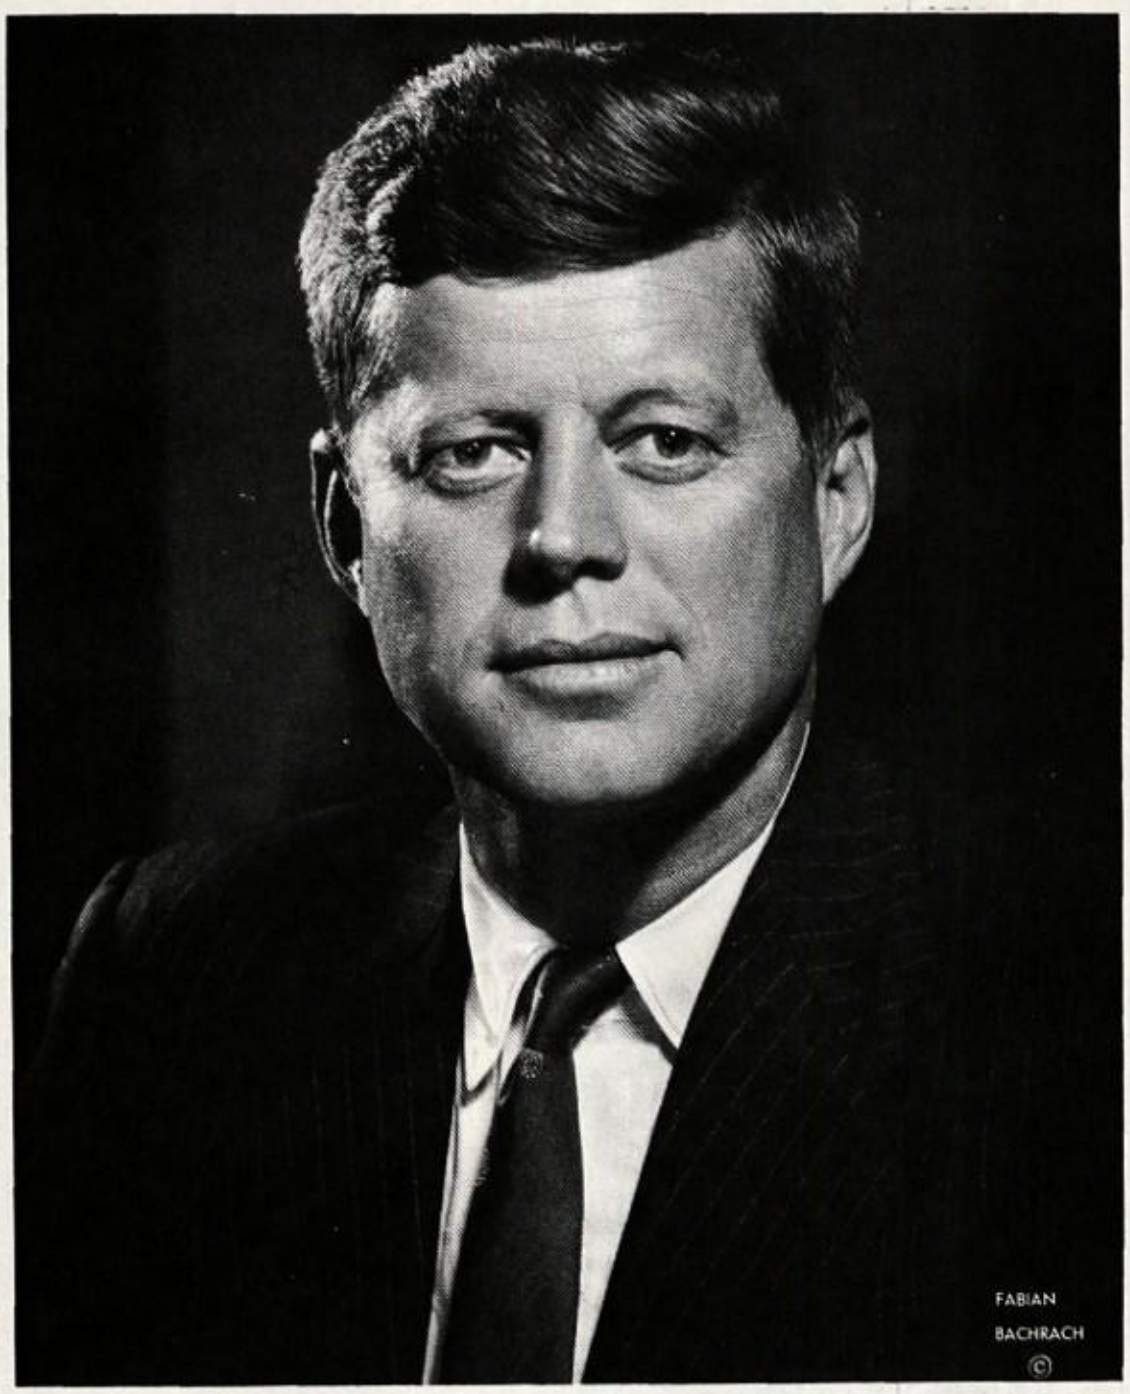
A TRIBUTE TO



JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY

Friday, November 22, 1963 was a memorable day. A day in which our hearts ached with grief at the news of the assassination of our beloved President of the United States. Truly a leader of mankind, we remember him as a shining example of courage, wisdom, freedom, and everlasting love for his country. His memory will long be remembered as we, the class of 1964, dedicate a part of our lives to his ideals, purposes and beliefs.
